The admit cards of eligible candidates have been uploaded on JK Police website <http://www.jkpolice.gov.in>. The timing / shift for the conduct of physical tests has been reflected in admit cards.

All the steps involved in the recruitment process are technology driven with no human intervention. The physical tests will be conducted by using RFID chips with computerized readings / results. All the events involved in the physical tests will be video-graphed and any candidate having any grievance with regard to his result shall be provided an opportunity to view his result in CCTV footage only on the day of test. The Physical Efficiency Tests / Physical Measurement Tests are qualifying in nature and will carry no marks. Only those candidates will be called for the next phase i.e written test who will qualify physical tests. The question paper for written test shall be of 100 marks containing 100 multiple choice questions and will be of 02 hours' duration. The Question paper for the written test will be of Matric standard. The final selection list shall be framed strictly as per the marks obtained in written test.

Entire process of recruitment will be completed with the aid of computerized tools with almost negligible human intervention. Some Touts / Middlemen / Contact men and Fraudsters may allure the public in general and candidates in particular with false promise of ensuring their selection in lieu of money. The computerization and technology driven result oriented Transparent Recruitment Process is a new feature in J&K State and as such general public and candidates may get enticed by such propaganda and get fleeced. Now, it is being abundantly made clear that there is no scope of any influence or interference in the recruitment process and as such all candidates are informed to be wary / cautious of such unscrupulous elements and not to get carried by their false promise or commitment. It is once again reiterated that merit obtained in written test will be sole criterion of selection and any such element approaching any candidate with the demand of money to facilitate his / her selection should be identified and nearest Police authorities and the below mentioned officers / Police Establishments be informed on the telephone numbers mentioned against each so that such agents / cheats are dealt under law.
